RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1882.

NO. 107.

COAST CLIPPINGS.

Winfield Wright's barn, Santa Rosa, worth $8,000, was burned Thursday.

The Northern Pacific is taking a branch line from Grand Falls D. T. to the British line.

Alexander Harris of People's Valley, Yavapai county A. T., raised upwards of $12,000 worth of corn last year.

Miss Fleta Gillespie, who was shot by a rejected suitor near Lodi, Cal., a little over a week ago, died on Friday night.

A man named Bolins, a rancher living near Big Blue A. T., while in a quarrel with a neighbor lately, was fatally stabbed.

The capital stock of the new company which is to flume the waters of the Santa Anna River near its source, is $1,000,000.

F. Stonebreaker of Logansville, Sierra county, was murdered and his body thrown into the river, January 22nd. There is no clew.

It is estimated that 250,000 sheep will have to be shipped from Los Angeles county within the next forty-five days, to prevent danger from short feed.

It is rumored that a railroad is to be built from Glendive M. T. to the Black Hills, and another to a connecting point with the Canadian Pacific.

Nevada City is to have a ball on the 25th of February, given by the bald-headed men of the town. Judge Niles Seares will officiate as floor director.

N. Levering of Los Angeles, has begun the publication of the California Agriculturist at Oakland. It is the only journal on the coast devoted to this industry.

George Ohse foreman of a logging camp, fifteen miles from Seattle, W. T., had a serious accident. He was on a loaded logging car, descending a steep hill, when the car became unmanageable and he was thrown off. He had a rib broken and was otherwise hurt.

The bonded warehouse in Sonoma is now doing more business than heretofore. The aggregate amount of brandy now in bond is about 15,000 gallons, and Uncle Sam will derive an income of some $20,000 from the warehouse during the fiscal year.

Some one lately tried to destroy the machinery of the California Mill, Mining, and Lumber Company's works at Black Hill, Mariposa county, by putting iron filings through the oil cup of the eccentric. The mischief was discovered before serious damage was done.

The Los Angeles Herald says: The losses of sheep already in the three counties of Los Angeles, San Bernardino, and San Diego, are variously estimated at from forty to one hundred thousand head. In portions of San Bernardino county whole flocks have been annihilated, to the last head.

A man named Schweitzer died at the Los Angeles County Hospital last week Tuesday, and was buried in the Evergreen Cemetery. A black dog that he owned followed the body to the grave, and has remained there since refusing to eat or drink, and will probably starve himself to death. This case of remarkable fidelity and affection has attracted deserved comment from the Los Angeles journals.

TRUTH ATTESTED.

Some Important Statements of Well-Known People Wholly Verified.

In order that the public may fully realize the genuineness of the statements, as well as the power and value of the article of which they speak, we publish herewith the fac-simile signatures of parties whose sincerity is beyond question. The truth of these testimonials is absolute, nor can the facts they announce be ignored.

Moline, Ill., July 14, 1881.
H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.
Gentlemen: Your remedy, the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has been used by both my wife and myself. She used it "on general principles," as a system and liver regulator; I took the medicine for a long-standing liver trouble, which has been the source of much inconvenience, and which failed to yield to the doctor's remedy, or any other, until I used your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. We both unite in pronouncing it to be the best medicine we ever used, and in recommending it to others as a safe remedy.

S. M. Whithers,
Mayor of Moline.

CHICAGO, MAY 30, 1881.
H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.
My Dear Sirs: For several years I have been a sufferer, and until your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure was suggested I have not known what it is to be free from pain. My family physician attributed all my suffering to a diseased condition of my kidneys, and after he had failed to give me relief, I tried your remedy, and a well man to-day.

C. H. Harris,
"Oak Ridge."

Thousands of equally strong endorsements—many of them in cases where hope was abandoned—have been voluntarily given, showing the remarkable power of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in all diseases of the kidneys, liver or urinary organs. If an one who reads this has any physical trouble, remember the great danger of delay.

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE, (SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY), FOR THE COMING YEAR.

With the November number began the new series under the title of The Century Magazine, which will be, in fact, a new, enlarged and improved Century. The page is somewhat larger and wider, admitting pictures of a larger size, and increasing the reading matter about.

FOURTEEN ADDITIONAL PAGES.

The following is a summary of the leading features of the new series for the year: A New Novel by Mrs. Burnett, entitled "Through One Administration," a story of Washington life.

Studies of the Louisiana Creoles by Geo. W. Cable, author of "The Grandissime," a series of illustrated papers on the traditions and romance of Creole life in Louisiana.

A Novel by W. D. Howells (author of "A Chance Acquaintance," etc.) dealing with characteristics of American life. Ancient and Modern Sculpture, by Mrs. Lucy M. Mitchell, to contain the finest series of engravings yet published of the masterpieces of sculpture. There will also be papers on "LIVING ENGLISH SCULPTORS," and on "THE SCULPTURE OF AMERICA," fully illustrated.

The Opera in New York, by Richard Grant White. A popular and valuable series, to be illustrated with wonderful completeness and beauty.

Architecture and Decoration in America, will be treated in a way to interest both the householder and the professional architect. There will also be papers on recent designs.

Representative Men and Women of the 19th Century, by Richard Grant White, accompanied by portraits of George Eliot, Robert Browning, Rev. Frederick W. Robertson (by the late Dean Stanley), Matthew Arnold, Christina Rossetti, and Cardinal Newman, and of the younger American authors, Wm. D. Howells, Henry James, Jr., and George W. Cable.

Scenes of Thackeray's Hawthorne's and George Eliot's Novels, according to the illustrations on the scenes of Dickens's novels.

The Reform of the Civil Service. Arrangements have been made for a series of able papers on this pressing political question.

Poets and Poetry in America. There will be studies of Longfellow, Whittier, Emerson, Lowell and others, by E. C. Steadman.

Stories, Sketches and Essays may be expected from Charles Dudley Warner, W. D. Howells, Mark Twain, Edward Eggleston, Henry James, Jr., John Muir, Miss Gordon Cumming, "H. H." Geo. W. Cable, Joel Chandler Harris, A. C. Redwood, D. D. Mitchell, Booth Rogers, Frank R. Stockton, Constance F. Woolson, H. H. Boyesen, Albert Sidney, Washington Gladden, John Burroughs, Parker Godwin, Thomas Mayhew, Henry King, Ernest Ingersoll, E. L. Godkin, E. Washburn, and many others.

One or two papers on the adventures of the The Club, and an original Life of Bewick, the engraver, will be among other features to be later announced.

The Editorial Departments throughout will be unusually complete, and the "World's Work" will be considerably enlarged.

The price of The Century Magazine will remain at $4 per year ($5 copy), and the portrait, (also $5) of the late Dr. H. H. Land, issued just before his death, photograph of a life-sized drawing by Wyatt Eaton, will possess a new interest to readers of this magazine. It is offered at $3 retail, or together with The Century Magazine for $6.50. Subscriptions are taken by the publisher, and by book-sellers and news-dealers everywhere.

THE SUN. NEW YORK. 1882.

THE SUN for 1882 will make its fifteenth annual revolution under the present management, shining, as always, for all, big and little, mean and gracious, contented and unhappy, Republican and Democratic, devout and irreligious, intelligent and obtuse. The Sun's light is for mankind and woman-kind of every sort; but its gentle warmth is for the good, and its potent heat discomfort on the blinding backs of the persistently wicked.

The Sun of 1882 was a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertook to report in a fresh, succinct, unobtrusive way, all the news of the world, omitting no event of human interest, and connecting upon a single thread the loosest of absolute independence. The success of this experiment was the success of The Sun. It effected a permanent change in the style of American newspapers. Every important newspaper established in this country in the dozen years past has been modelled after The Sun. Every important department of newspaper news has been modified and bettered by the force of The Sun's example.

The Sun of 1882 will be the same outspoken, truth-telling and interesting newspaper. By a liberal use of the means which an abundant property affords, we shall make it better than ever before.

We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, and measuring its importance, not by the trivial yardstick, but by its real interest to the people. Distance from Printing House Square is not the first consideration with The Sun. Whenever anything happens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or Bokhara.

In politics we have decided opinions; and are accustomed to express them in language that can be understood. We say what we think, and we think what we believe. We are the only secret of The Sun's political course.

THE WEEKLY SUN gathers into eight pages the best matter of the seven daily issues. An editorial department of unequalled merit, full market reports, and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific and domestic intelligence make the Weekly Sun a paper which will be the best newspaper for the farmer's household that was ever printed.

We do not know and read and like The Sun. The Sun is a paper of which is a collection of interesting literature, with the best poetry of the day, prose every line worth reading, and a number of good-sized books, and infinitely more varied and entertaining than any book, big or little.

Our idea of what a newspaper should be, please you, send for The Sun. Our terms are as follows: For the daily Sun, a four-page sheet of twenty columns, the price is $5 a month, or $50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty columns, the price is $6 a month, or $70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of The Sun is also furnished separately at $1.50 a year, postage paid. The price of the Weekly Sun, eight pages, six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten send $10 and send an extra copy free.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The one drop of comfort in the cup of sorrow which this nation drank last year is the triumph of American love of order and respect for law over the fierce thirst for revenge on the assassin for his awful crime. To allow the courts to try him at all, speaks volumes for our self-control as a people. To endure the taunts, the presumption and the threats of such a wretch for weeks and weeks seems almost superhuman forbearance. We can only wonder that the insect was not ground to powder in an hour after his crime was committed. That it was not so will remain an everlasting monument to this nation. It is as Garfield would have wished it.

Ex-Minister to Peru Christianity has a card in the Detroit Free Press in which he says a letter published by that paper was written by him to Blaine as private and is not correctly stated. He says all letters are kept in the files of the State Department, and are accessible to clerks, so they could easily get into the papers. He does not think Frelinghuysen to blame for the newspapers getting hold of Blaine's letter to the South American Republics, or his letter.

This State should be represented in Congress by a representative man—one that reflects in himself the high average of intelligence for which Nevada is noted. Hon. George M. Sablin of Eureka is such a man. He is able, dignified and honorable. He is Eastern Nevada's candidate for Supreme Judge, but if the whole State demanded his name for Congress it would no doubt be satisfactory.

It requires something besides a hobby to make a successful newspaper.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

—C. Taylor has sued the Sutter street railroad for $25,000 for damaging his wife.

—A large tripe factory was burned yesterday in San Francisco. Loss ten thousand dollars.

—The mortuary report for last week in San Francisco shows 125 deaths; 71 males.

—W. J. Florence, the actor, will permanently retire from the stage. Ill-health is the cause given.

—There is no foundation for the report that Guitau committed suicide. He will be guarded closely.

—President Potter of the C. B. & Q. says that road has purchased neither the Denver and Rio Grande nor any other Denver road, as has been freely reported.

—The Republican County Committee in San Francisco last night adopted a resolution strongly urging the passage of the Chinese restriction bill now before Congress.

An Indian Fight.

TUCSON, February 4.

Trouble has been brewing for some time between the White Mountain and San Carlos Indians, growing out of late trouble at Cib. On the night of the 23 some of the San Carlos band were in the White Mountain Indian camp, where hot words were followed by shooting. One San Carlos Indian was instantly killed, then a general conflict ensued and several were wounded. A band of scouts were sent from San Carlos who captured eight of their number, but not without resistance, resulting in the wounding of three of the prisoners.

SENTENCE SCENES.

Guitau Gets Mad and Sentences Judge, Jury and the Whole Nation.

WASHINGTON, February 4.

Judge Cox this morning ruled that there was nothing in Scoville's motion for a new trial, and overruled it. Scoville filed an exception, and Corbhill asked the Court to pronounce its sentence.

Guitau, who had resumed his seat at the counsel table, was ordered to stand up.

Judge Cox—"Have you anything to say why sentence should not now be passed upon you?"

Guitau (still sitting)—"I ask your Honor to postpone sentence as long as possible."

Judge Cox—"Stand up. Have you anything to say why sentence should not now be pronounced upon you?"

The prisoner arose, pale, but with lips compressed, and desperation in his face. In a low tone he began, but soon his manner became wild and violent, and, pounding upon the table, he said: "I am not guilty of the charge. It was God's act, and God will take care of it. He will take care of it, and every officer of this Government, and every man on that jury, and every member of this bench will pay for it, and this nation will roll in blood if my body goes into the ground and I am hung. The Jews put the despised Galilean in the grave, but at the destruction of Jerusalem forty years afterwards the Almighty got even with them. I am not afraid of death. I am here as God's man. Kill me to-morrow if you want. I am God's man, and I have been from the start."

Judge Cox—"You have been convicted of a crime so terrible and so far-reaching in its results that it has drawn upon you the horror of the whole world. The excitement made it no easy task to secure for you a fair trial, but you have had the power of the United States Treasury, and of the Government in your service, to protect your person, and to procure evidence. You have had as fair and impartial a jury as ever assembled. You have been defended by counsel with a zeal and devotion that merits the highest encomium, and I have done my best to secure a fair presentation of your defense. It would have been a comfort to many if the verdict had been that your act was that of an irresponsible man. It would have left the satisfying belief that the political assassination was something foreign to the institution and civilization of our country. Your case has been so extraordinary that people might well oftentimes have doubted your sanity."

Guitau—"I was acting as God's man. And that you had moral sense and conscience enough to recognize the moral sanity of such an act."

Guitau—"That's a matter of opinion. Your own testimony shows that you recoiled with horror from the idea. You say that you prayed against it. You say that you thought it might be prevented. This shows that your conscience warned you against it. But by a wretched sophistry of your own mind you worked yourself up against the protest of your own conscience. What motive could have induced you to this act must be a matter of conjecture. Probably men will think some fanaticism or morbid desire for self exaltation was the real inspiration. Your own testimony seems to controvert the theories of your counsel. They have maintained and thought honestly, I believe, that you were driven against your will by an insane impulse. Testimony showed that you deliberately resolved to do it and that deliberate and misguided will was the sole impulse. This may seem insanity to some persons, but the law looks upon it as a wilful crime. You will have due opportunity of having any errors I may have committed in the course of the trial passed upon by the Court in banc, but meanwhile it is necessary for me to pronounce the sentence of the law—that you be taken hence to the common jail of the district, from whence you came, and there be kept in confinement, and on Friday, the 30th day of June, 1892, you be taken to a place prepared for your execution within the walls of said jail, and there, between the hours of 12 and 2 p. m., you be hanged by the neck until you are dead, and may the Lord have mercy on your soul."

During the reading Guitau stood apparently unmoved, and with his gaze riveted upon the Judge. But when the final words were spoken he struck the table violently and shouted: "May the Lord have mercy upon your soul. I'd rather stand where I do than where that jury do and where your Honor stands. I am not afraid to die. I stand here as God's man, and God Almighty will cure every man who had a part in procuring this unrighteous verdict. Nothing but good has come from Garfield's removal, and that will be the verdict of posterity on my inspiration. I don't care a snap for the verdict of this corrupt generation. I would rather a thousand times be in my position than in that of those who have hounded me to death. I shall have a glorious flight to death. I shall have a glorious flight to glory, but that miserable scoundrel Corbhill will have a permanent job down below where the devil is preparing for him."

After apparently talking himself out, the prisoner turned to his brother, and without the slightest trace of excitement conversed for some minutes, before being taken from the Court-room.

The Billiard Match.

NEW YORK, February 4.

A Herald Paris special says the billiard match was resumed at 20 minutes past 9 o'clock. The crowd was so great that in pressing to get into the room the entrance door was broken down. Slosson continuing his interrupted break, ran 17, followed up in the next inning by 136. Vigneux, in the second inning made 87, when for some time open table plays and small scores were the rule. In the seventh inning Vigneux ran 119, missing on a masse shot. Both players had been playing for safety, but in the eleventh inning Slosson made 135, and in the thirteenth 95. At the 87th shot in this run a dispute arose, Vigneux claiming "no count." Slosson having the balls on the rail. Referee decided in favor of Slosson, which caused great applause. Vigneux got nervous here and went to pieces. He knew he was playing an almost hopeless game.

A Wall Street Rumor.

NEW YORK, February 4.

The Tribune says: It has been rumored in Wall street for several days that a Conference Committee between the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and the Overland Railroads had agreed upon terms of a renewal of the former contracts. It was said that the subsidy to be paid by the railroad companies has been reduced from $110,000 to $90,000. No confirmation of the rumors could be obtained yesterday. Officers of several companies declared that no arrangement had been made, and officers of one of the companies said that no such subsidy as that reported should be paid by the railroads.

Pressing Their Claims.

CHICAGO, February 4.

Two delegates from Dakota have already passed through here for Washington to urge the partition and admission of Dakota into the Union. They represented northern Dakota and the Black Hills. To-day a third delegation, representing southern Dakota, and bent on the same mission, passed through.

Steamboats on a Lark.

NEW ORLEANS, February 4.

In a very high wind to-night the steamboats Pargond and Thomson Deane broke loose and drifted in against the New Orleans and Pacific Railroad wharf at Goldboro, opposite the city. Damage, $50,000.

Hanged.

ST. LOUIS, February 4.

The Republican's Dallas special says: D. C. White, who murdered George Conquest in New York, VanZandt county, in January, 1876, was hanged at Canton at 2 o'clock to-day. He died bravely and protested his innocence to the last.

Massachusetts Fire.

BOSTON, February 4.

The barrel factory of James & Co., Cambridgeport, burned to-day. Loss estimated at one hundred thousand dollars, including machinery valued at forty thousand dollars. Insurance not given.

Men Confined in a Burning Coal Mine.

RICHMOND, February 4.

Information was received last night of a gas explosion at the Graveshaft Midlothian coal mines, at Chestfield. Thirty-two men caught under the ground. No details yet received.

A second dispatch states that little or no hope is entertained for any of the thirty-two men in the shaft. The gas testers went down nearly to the bottom of the pit three times, but were forced to return by the suffocating smoke and gas. They report the pit on fire, but will make another effort to search for the unfortunates. News of the disaster spread very rapidly, and in a short time a crowd had gathered. The scene is very distressing, as nearly everyone had some relative or friend among the miners. Names of men entombed; whites: Wm. M. Marshall, (bottom boss), James E. Hall, Thos. M. Hall, Jos. Jewett, Jr., A. N. Jewett, Jas. Brown, Jas. Currow, Jno. Morris, Jas. Shields and Richard Coghill. Colored: Richard Morgan, Robt. Bisgford, Saml. Cox, Pleasant Hewart, Jas. Cunlapp, Ben Brooks, Alex. Logan, Peter Hopper, Major Pollard, Solomon Tyler, Squire Bright, Jno. Green, Lewis Hobbs, Danl. Hammond, Isham Graves, Ed. Ross, Robt. Brooks, Thos. Hummell, Albert Hughes, Jas. Mills, Jeff. Coleman and Fred. Anderson. The shaft is nearly 600 feet deep, running three-quarters of a mile in a lateral direction. The Medlothean coal mines belong to the estate of the late H. H. Borroughs, of New York, and cost, twelve years ago, between $400,000 and $500,000.

Relief of a Shipwrecked Crew.

WASHINGTON, February 4.

The following communication has been received by the Marine Hospital Bureau from the Collector of Customs at Waldoboro, Me:

"I herewith transmit a relief certificate in the case and application for the relief of Aloozo B. Henderson, one of the three survivors of the crew of eight men on the ill-fated schooner Almon Bird, which foundered off Bone Island in a storm on the 4th, 5th and 6th of January. Henderson has had three days and nights in the ship's boat without food or drink, except the warm blood of his dead shipmates, when a man died. Four of them died in the boat from hunger and cold, and the surviving men would open their veins and drink the blood."

Railroad Talk.

TORONTO, Kansas, February 4.

A Commonwealth editorial says: Whatever may be the opinion in Boston it will be admitted here in the West that no compensation whatever can pay the Santa Fe road for the loss of its Pacific coast terminus, and it is found that the Santa Fe cannot compete with the A. & P., as was originally contemplated, or make arrangements for another through line, its true policy shall be to dispose of its stock in the Atlantic and build another line from Pueblo to San Francisco.

His Standing in London.

NEW YORK, February 4.

The Herald's London special says: Very little attention is paid to the Blaine controversy, though New York correspondents send long reports. When Blaine was supposed to represent the Government's policy, the English press and politicians were much exercised, but now that Blaine is repudiated, the subject is dropped unceremoniously, and his personal opinions are regarded as of no account.

Railroad Rumor.

CHICAGO, February 4.

The President of one of the roads connecting with the Union Pacific received a message to-day from an official of the latter road, now in New York, saying, "Do not be surprised at any time to hear of the consolidation of the Union and Central Pacific." Other private information from well authenticated points tend very strongly in the same direction.

Trouble Brewing.

NEW YORK, February 4.

The Herald's Cairo special says: The German Consul was hustled about in the streets of Cairo and an English gentleman was beaten nearly to death near Alexandria yesterday. England and France must back out of Egypt completely or set at once. Egypt is the vortex of Stamboul intrigues, and anything is possible.

Floods.

SHREVEPORT, February 4.

Heavy rainfall here during the past thirty hours. The overflowing of the whole country seems to be inevitable. The lakes above here are higher than they have been for six years. Many plantations above and below are already under water, and the levees are giving way.

A Beliequent Senator.

COLUMBUS, S. C., February 4.

Senator Fishburne was released from jail on Wednesday, giving a bond for $2,000 to keep the peace. Yesterday he occupied his seat in the Senate and spoke on the stock law. To-day the debate was renewed, and Fishburne was compelled to take his seat, by Lieutenant-Governor Kennedy, the presiding officer, on account of being out of order. When the Senate adjourned Fishburne approached Kennedy and asserted that his rulings had been unfair to him. Kennedy replied, "Oh no, Fishburne, I treated you as I would have done any other Senator." Fishburne responded, "You are a liar Sir!" whereupon Kennedy struck him. They were separated, but Fishburne followed Kennedy up the street, cursing and attempting to renew the fight, but was arrested.

An Internal Horn.

CLEVELAND, O., February 4.

Yesterday Joseph Malholm moved into a house on Buckeye street. Soon after he found a handsome powder-horn hanging on the knob of his back door. He playfully hung it about the neck of his 3-year-old boy, who with another son of six years went into the next room. An explosion followed and the children were horribly mutilated, perhaps fatally. They are alive to-day, but their eyesight is destroyed. It is suspected the horn was an infernal machine hung on the door knob by some enemy.

A Swindling Tax Collector.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., February 4. The Grand Jury charged with investigating into the affairs of County Collector Green, who is alleged to have made wholesale fraudulent collection of taxes, found fifty indictments against him to-day, and he was arrested on a bench warrant and admitted to bail in the sum of $15,000. Said Green would make $25,000 to $30,000 out of his scheme had it not been detected. His plan was simply to overcharge on each tax bill.

Murder and Suicide.

TROY, N. Y., February 4.

Wm. Jacobs killed his sister-in-law, Mrs. Adam Somax, this morning, and then killed himself. Both belonged to Grafton.

WESTERN.

Working in the Right Way.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 4. The Executive Committee of the Immigration Association of California held a special meeting last evening and resolved to issue a pamphlet containing information concerning the vacant United States lands for the benefit of immigrants and other inquirers.
